Alfa Laval wins SEK 55 million vegetable oil order

Alfa Laval – a world leader in heat transfer, centrifugal separation and fluid handling – has won an order to supply several process lines for edible oil plants in South East Asia. The order has a value of approximately SEK 55 million. It is booked in the Food Systems unit of the Food & Water Division, with deliveries scheduled for 2018.

The process lines include various pieces of equipment such as heat exchangers, pumps and separators to refine the edible oil.

“I am very pleased to announce this order for our food systems,” says Nish Patel, President of the Food & Water Division. “Alfa Laval offers various products and process lines for the food industry, all with proven reliability and hygienic safety.”

Did you know that... according to “Oil World” statistics, South East Asia is producing approximately 30 percent of the world supply of edible oil?

About Alfa Laval
